

The Summer Plan

By Dale Gentry

Every plan is abolished, will summer be a bore?

We seek new plans new paths to explore

No map to follow or guide to more

No church, friends or camp with balls to score

Ought we put the kids to work with cleaning and chore?

Grateful for excuse not to visit the store

Don't fret don't fuss there won't be war

We turn with aplomb to the great out of door